R. v. Lall

Between
Her Majesty the Queen, and
Sonny Lall

[1993] O.J. No. 4155

Ontario Court of Justice (Provincial Division)
Brampton, Ontario
Ready Prov. J.

Oral judgment: December 17, 1993.
(1 p.)

Criminal law — Appeal from conviction.

This was an appeal from conviction.

HELD: Appeal allowed. The conviction was quashed and the fine returned.

Counsel:

A. Hamilton, for the Crown.
J. Burd, for the accused.

¶ 1 READY PROV. J. (orally):— All right. I am going to follow the decision of Judge Osborne in the Newmarket courts and the conviction is - I take it you are requesting that the conviction be set aside; is that correct?

¶ 2 MR. BURD: Yes, an acquittal entered and the fine refunded, Your Honour. The client paid the fine.

¶ 3 THE COURT: All right. And what other request are you making - that the conviction be set aside, sentence be set aside?

¶ 4 MR. BURD: That the conviction be quashed, Your Honour, and the fine refunded.

¶ 5 THE COURT: All right. Conviction quashed and the fine is refunded to the accused.

¶ 6 MR. BURD: Thank you, Your Honour.
